Stylish combination of lightness and dynamism

Highly modern designs, carefully conceived and intricately implemented – a real top-notch design highlight which combines supposed opposites and creates pioneering clarity.

STREAM is a harmonious blend of flowing dynamism and innovative lightness. The design-oriented bathroom range has black and white meeting red highlights, straight geometric lines meeting organic shapes, contrast meeting gentle tones and neutrality meeting imagination. Two contrasting shapes describe a ridge which deliberately emphasises light reflections across the gloss surface. Dynamic internal edges balance out the external geometry of the tiles and the wall. Cut decors continue the edge line – as do polished glass inserts which are perfectly integrated into the formal lines of the range.

Smooth or dynamic, with or without inserts: Cream and ruby-coloured plain tiles and cut decors are stylishly complemented by satin-finished and gloss black glass, together with floor tiles and bases in black silk matt to form a complete room concept. The generous, stylish 25 x 70 cm format is a specific expression of the exclusive design and workmanship.

STREAM – Dynamic shapes combined with delicate glass elements. For exciting room scenarios with an individual touch.

Size: 25 x 70 cm / 9.84 x 27.56 inch (wall)
